BOSTON.

A FTER an extensive practice of apparate tents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.

Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice renidered in all matters touching the same Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New Rugland, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUC-OLESFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABLLITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that an no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years pathas enabled him to accumulate a vast colloction of specifications and official decisions relative to natents. These headles his extensive library or legal and one chanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, reader him able, beyond question, to offer superor facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great deny there are here saved inventors of Patents.

"In eard Merch and the form of the patents have been granted, and that one is most early to the analysis of the patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistable proof of great talent and abi

The Masonio Fraternity.—The past few years have been marked with the rapid growth of Masoniy in the United States. The number of members within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodges of the several States are not reported, but we learn from the statistics of the Grand Lodge of the United States that there were in 1859 upwards of 4,600 lodges, and counting the number of members for each lodge at forty-five, which is twenty-five less than the general average for the State of New York, and thirty-five less than that of Pennsylvania, we have the number of Masons connected with lodges in the Union as nearly two we have the number of Masons connected with lodges in the Union as nearly two hundred and seven thousand, while there are a large number of Masons in every State not connected with any lodge. At is safe, therefore, to put down the number of Masons at the present time within the United States at a quarter of a million.—Pittsburgh Post.

SEVERE WORK ON A RAILROAD.-On the 24th ult., in a shanty village on the line of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, near Louisville, Joseph Gassett chopped Wm. Davis's head to pieces with a hatchet be-couse he asked him to lend him his pipe. It was probably a case of mania-a-piete.
Or the evening of the same day, James
Walker and his employer and wile started to ride down to another swillement upon a hand car. On the track they were inter-rupted by two men, named Wm. Brock and Day, who placed some obstructions on the ROOFING,

Daring Highway Robbery-Robb Arrested.

SPECIAL SESSION OF JUSTICES' COURT.
Ten days ago, George W. Derry lauder in New Bedford from whalesh p Thomas Dixon, whereof Captain Plastic was master. The ship sailed from New Bedford three years ago the middle of last December, hav ing had a good voyage.

Monday last, at 4 o'clock P. N., Derry, as Resol he says, left New Bedford in the train which passed. connects with the Stonington steamers for New York, intending to visit his home at Fonds, Montgomery County, State of New York, where he has a father, mother, and sister. (We cannot find any such town in that county, in the United States census.) Through the svil influence of rum, Derry found himself, that evening, on board the steamer Bay State, between Fall River and this city, facting very bad. As soon as the boat reached Long Wharf, he ran ashore. asking for a doctor. He was put into a carriage and carried to Dr. Butler's, who prescribed for him. He was in the delirium

About 2 A. M. Tuesday, he was found by the police in front of the Phonix House shouting fire, at the top of his voice, and nothing on but his shirt and pants. He was taken into custody, but continued, notwithstanding alleviates were administered, to rave until Tuesday night. When he was direcovered by the police, he had been robbed of some seventy dollars in money, and a silver Lunting watch. From remarks dropped within hearing of the Mayor, he was induced Tuesday afternoon, to visit the Phonix House, and did so in company with the Marshal, at 2 P.M. He learned that Gilbert Briggs left the Phonix House in the night, with Derry, and that Briggs had just left for the Young America, which was all ready to start for Fall River. He then drove to the steamer. stopped her as she was about to leave, and the Marshal soon brought out the rogue. Brigge was searched in the Mayor's office, and on his person were found Derry's watch and seventy dollars in money, all of which was in bills on the Marine Bank, New Bed ford, and evidently belonged to Derry. Also they found, in several packages, an entire suit of clothing for himself, which he had bought at Swinburne & Goff's, and for which he had paid seventeen dollars. Also, a silk dress pattern, muslin dress pattern, paid Parmenter & Son seventeen and a half dollars. Also a pair of patent leather boots, for which he peld T. M. Seebury three and a half dollars. All of these goods were paid for in bills of the Marine Bank, New Bedford, They were received back again by the payties, and the money refunded.

Briggs when questioned by His Honor the Mayor, made various false statements, but finally admitted that he had stolen the money and watch. Wedne day afternoon, at a special session of the Justices' Court, Briggs was committed for trial.

This is a most daring act of highway rob-bery. Briggs is a smooth looking, almond eyed negro, and probably understands " civil ized" life. The victim is also colored, dark as that day was several years ago in Egypt, but apparently very intelligent, with a strong love for strong drink. These two together were in his case overpowering Wednesday, he was anxious "to be getting towards home " entirely oblirious as to his baggage.

Generous Munificence.

We stated Wednesday, that some one had made a generous provision for a Fourth of July dinner' for the inmates of the Asylum-We take pleasure in adding that the arrangements were all complete, and the unfortunate on that day were really fortunate mates of the Asylam are indebted to the generosity of Dr. Mercer, of New Orleans. The medium of communication between Dr Mercer and Mayor Cranston, was Gov. Gibbs, who exerted himself earnestly, and successfully in carring out the project in accordance with his usual public spirit. We are inform. ed that Dr. Mercer's order was " to provide the best dinner for the inmates, regardless of expense." Such consideration for those in adverse circumstances, surely will meet with its reward.

quiet in this city. Nothing equal to it in this respect has been known for years,—the streets having a really described appearance.

A large proportion of our citizens left town to witness "celebrations" elsewhere. tional birth-day. Had our city undertaken to  $d \circ$  anything of consequence, it would have failed in drawing so many as might have been expected, from the fact, that there were large celebrations, furming large attractions all around us. Fall River, Providence, and New Bedford, spent their thousands, and their tens of thousands, the influence of which would have been potent in drawing against whatever might have been done have

The tenth of September is a day peonliarly dear to Newporters, and one which they will atways take pride in noticing. It is also a day not observed by other cities and towns, at least this alde of Ohlo. It is also a day when the weather is cooler than it is liable to be in July, and in se far is more favorable for out-of-doors of Perry's Victory present a most favorable day for observance? And the idea is of weight. We have more people in the city in the first part of September, than in the first part of Ju-ly. We think there are cogent reasons in favor of a pelebration next September.
